Friday 25th September 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

Today we have announced our new head pupils to the school. The children wrote letters to me and then met with me to explain what would make them a good head pupil. It was a very hard decision since all the candidates had lovely ideas, well done to all the children. We will also have new house captains and prefects next week. From each class, representatives will meet, along with the head pupils as our new school council, providing an important pupil voice.

Black History month begins next week. Throughout the month children will be hearing stories and learning about individuals from Black British and world culture.
